

Special Libraries Association
CENTRAL OHIO CHAPTER

Program Meeting
April 22, 2009
Dayton Daily News Archive, Dayton, Ohio

Approximately 10 members and guests of SLA's Central Ohio Chapter met at 5:30 p.m. for a presentation on the acquisition of the Dayton Daily News Archives by Wright State University Special Collections and Archives, followed by a tour of the collection in its new location at the Kettering Center Building. The presentation was given by Dawne Dewey, Head of Wright State University Special Collections and Archives.

The archives comprise an impressively large room filled with filing cabinets containing picture, clippings, etc., of newsworthy people and events, with a focus on Ohio and the Dayton area.

After the program, attendees adjourned to the Pacchia restaurant in the historic Oregon district for an excellent dinner.
