

An Evening with SLA President-Elect

Stephen Abram

Tuesday, April 24, 2007
Il Falco Ristorante
Stamford, CT

Shake off those rainy days of spring and reconnect with friends and colleagues at our first meeting of the season!

We're fortunate to host SLA President-Elect Stephen Abram. You'll enjoy Stephen's entertaining style as he shares his vision for our organization's future. Stephen welcomes the opportunity to speak with each of us about the issues and challenges facing Information Professionals and SLA. This is your opportunity to voice concerns, ask questions, and share ideas to help shape the future our organization!

Stephen is Vice President Innovation for SirsiDynix where he helps predict the future of libraries, technology, and user behavior. He is a Fellow of SLA, and has been awarded SLA's John Cotton Dana Award. Library Journal named him "a 'Mover and Shaker', one of the 'key' people influencing the future of libraries and librarianship". And since joining SLA in 1980, Stephen has held literally dozens of leadership positions.
