

KM, Money and Dinner

From: SLA Georgia Chapter

Location: Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta 1000 Peachtree St, Atlanta, GA

When: Thursday, February 27, 3:30pm

Come join the Chapter in our KM program at the Fed.
Followed by a tour of Bank, Money Museum, and a Dutch Treat dinner.

Our Speakers:

- 1) Gwinn Bruns, CNN Digital Asset Management Librarian will make a presentation on the CNN digital archive project.
- 2) Ernie Evangelista, our host, at the Atlanta Fed will present an overview of the Frequently Asked Questions database.

The schedule:

- 3:30 Gather at meeting room, Welcoming remarks
- 3:45 - 4:30 Program Presentations
- 4:30 Tour of Library and Bank's Money Museum
- 5:15 Break out into small dinner groups
- 5:45 Dutch Treat Dinner

Dinner choices in one of 3 areas:

1) Crescent Walk:

Pasta de la Pulcinella - Italian,
South City Kitchen - Southern,
Front Page News - Cajun.

2) Piedmont and Tenth Streets:

Gilbert's - Mediterranean,
Nickimoto's - Japanese,
Flying Biscuit - Southern,
Cha Gio - Vietnamese.

3) Peachtree Street (7-8th Streets):

Gordon Biersch - Microbrewery,
Little Azio's - Italian,
Noodle - Asian,
Vortex - Burgers

Cost of the event:$5 + Dinner

No Deadline

RSVP to: Charles.Shellabarger@GDSAssociates.com

Questions through Tuesday: Charles Shellabarger 770-425-8100

After that call Ernie or Barbara Frolik at the Fed. 404-498-8927 / 498-8867

Ernie asked us to add the following:

The nation's heightened security may make parking at the Bank difficult. Besides, with some folks going out to dinner after the meeting, it does not make sense for folks to have to return to the Bank to get their cars if they can proceed to an outside lot. So, folks should park at lots near the Bank. A very convenient one can be found on 10 Street between Juniper and Peachtree Streets.

Program attendees, whether coming from MARTA or by car, should use the Bank's entrance at Peachtree and 10 Streets. They will have to go through metal detectors and be given guest passes by our security guards. If wearing any coats, attendees should hang their coats in the closets near our Security Desk and Museum. Then, either a Library staff member or an SLA greeter will direct folks to our elevators.