Last year, the San Francisco Bay Guardian named Marty Nemko the Bay Area’s best career coach. On May 5, he will be our career coach, leading a workshop he’s developing just for us called Becoming a Beloved Special Librarian. He’ll show us how to better connect with patrons and colleagues and to reenergize ourselves so we can be our best.

Marty is definitely a friend of special librarians. In the career ratings he compiled for US News & World Report, librarians ranked at the top. Please join us for an informative and energizing program.

Registration must be received by April 25, 2006.
