SLA-SF Bay Region Dinner Program Featuring Don Bain

What: Don Bain's Landscape Panoramas and Digital Archive

When: Wednesday, June 25, 2008, from 5:30 - 8:00 p.m.

Where: The Jazzschool, 2087 Addison Street, Berkeley

About our Speaker: From <http://virtualguidebooks.blogspot.com>: Don Bain has created a collection of more than 5,000 VR panoramas that will allow you to travel (virtually) throughout western North America. These amazing photographs show you exactly what it's like to be in a particular spot -- you can look in any direction, all the way around.

Don will speak on the history of representing landscapes, beginning with the 360-degree panoramas that once were installed in rooms (only a few survive today), moving on to traditional wide panoramic photographs, and ending with the new possibilities offered by the digital era, including cylindrical "up and down" panoramas.

Join us to learn more about Don's photography and creating and using this digital archive of landscapes.

About the Venue: The Jazzschool is located in Berkeley's blossoming Downtown Arts and Theater District. The downtown Berkeley BART station (at Center Street) is less than half a block from the Jazzschool's entrance, and AC Transit bus stops are also nearby. There is metered street parking and passenger loading zones, as well as a public parking garage one block away.

Food and Drink: A box supper, with chicken, shrimp and vegetarian selections, is included in the price of registration. You will be able to make your choice upon arrival. Beer, wine and other drinks will be available for purchase on-site at the JazzCaffè.
