

* JOINT EVENT: SAN FRANCISCO BAY REGION & SAN ANDREAS CHAPTERS ****

What: "Defending Libraries in a Time of Budget Uncertainties" - A Special Evening with Janice Lachance, CEO of the Special Libraries Association.

When: Wednesday, September 17, 2008. Check-in and social hour begins at 5:45 p.m.

Where: The Coyote Point Yacht Club, 1820 Coyote Point Drive, San Mateo

Janice will discuss her experiences and lessons learned from defending the EPA libraries (and others) and suggest how we can apply those lessons to our own situations and libraries. This event presents a rare opportunity to meet and share your views with our organization's national director.

The Honorable Janice R. Lachance became the 13th chief executive of the Special Libraries Association in 2003. Janice's career has included extensive experience working for members and committees of the U.S. Congress, where she served in various policy and management positions. Her many years of government service culminated with a cabinet position in the Clinton administration, where she served as Director of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management from 1997-2001. Janice is a graduate of Manhattanville College in Purchase, NY, and earned her Juris Doctor degree at Tulane University School of Law in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Please join us for an informative evening that will include networking and a buffet dinner at the Coyote Point Yacht Club in San Mateo, a casual setting that offers spectacular panoramic views of San Francisco Bay.
