

All that Glitters

SLA Meeting

April 11, 2006 Time: 4:00-5:30 p.m.

Come and experience the fabulous R.T. Liddicoat Gemological Library and Information Center. The Library is the premier resource for the global gemology and jewelry industry. It is an integral part of the Gemological Institute of America.

Dona Dirlam, Director of the Library, will lead a lecture and tour, highlighting books, periodicals, photographic images and videos. The focus of the collection is gemology, geology and mineralogy, jewelry design and history, jewelry manufacturing, lapidary arts, and business.

A celebrated component of the Library is the Cartier Rare Book Repository and Archives. The collection's rare books including: 31 editions of Pliny's Naturalis Historia (Natural History), Jean Baptiste Tavernier's Les Six Voyages and George Frederick Kunz's Gems and Precious Stones of North America. Also in the Archives are original jewelry renderings and other one-of-a kind items.

In addition: A no-host dinner will be scheduled at a local restaurant. Please sign-up for dinner below.
