

Job Hunting for Academic Library Positions

Compiled for "Interview Skills and Resumes-Dos and Don'ts"
SLA/SANDALL Joint Meeting
May 26, 2006

C. Anne Turhollow
San Diego State University

Articles

Golderg, Tyler, and Womack, Kay, "Academic applicants: make a good first impression," C&RL News, 51, no. 8 (1990): 701-705.

Goldberg, Tyler, and Womack, Kay, "Application practices of recent academic library appointees," College & Research Libraries, 60, no. 1 (1999): 71-77.

Howze, Philip C., "10 job-hunting tips for new librarians," C&RL News, 58, no. 7 (1997): 490-492.

Howze, Philip C., "New librarians and job hunting: patience is a virtue," C&RL News, 62, no. 6 (2001): 596-600.

Larsen, Suzanne T., and McConkey, Joan S., "Applying for professional positions," C&RL News, 56, no. 6 (1995): 415-417.

Markgren, Susanne, and Allen, Tiffany, "How do I get there from here?" C&RL News, 65, no. 11 (2004): 653-656.

Singleton, Brett, "Entering academic librarianship: tips for library school students," C&RL News, 64, no. 2 (2003): 84-86.

Web Sites

Laning, Melissa, and Smith, Margo, "Success at every stage: web sites for a career in academic librarianship," C&RL News, 65, no. 6 (2004): 318-320, 326.

<<http://www.ala.org/ala/acrl/acrlpubs/crlnews/backissues2004/june04/success.htm>>

ACRL (Association of College and Research Libraries) Career Opportunities

<<http://www.ala.org/acrl/jobs>>

CARL (California Academic and Research Librarians) Jobs
< <http://www.carl-acrl.org/Jobs/index.html>>

Chronicle of Higher Education Chronicle Careers
<<http://chronicle.com/jobs/>>

lisjobs.com : Library Careers: Advice, Statistics,
Salaries, and Articles
<<http://www.lisjobs.com/advice.htm>>

The section on interviewing has several sites with lists of questions that are typically asked.