Who We Are

The Special Libraries Association (SLA)

is a nonprofit global organization for innovative information professionals and their strategic partners. SLA promotes and strengthens its members through learning, advocacy, and networking initiatives. SLA serves more than 12,000 members in 83 countries in the information profession, including corporate, academic and government information specialists.

St. Louis Metro Area Chapter

We represent information professionals in eastern Missouri and central Illinois.

We serve diverse communities, including: corporations, non-profit organizations, law offices, government-related offices, museums, educational institutions and non-traditional collections ranging from transportation to zoology.

A Global Network of Information Professionals

What We Offer Our Members

1. Formal local meetings with programming geared to the needs of specialized information professionals.
2. Free local professional development opportunities.
3. An online discussion list.
4. A chapter newsletter.
5. Employment and career resources.
6. Networking with professional colleagues through informal meetings such as happy hours.
7. Mentoring for library school students and new librarians.
8. A Member Sponsorship Fund to assist existing and prospective members to maintain or to establish membership in SLA and to become active in the chapter. It is a one-time, non-renewable support award.

We manage Information
in all its forms
