

Tracy Z. Maleeff
Information Resource Analyst
Duane Morris, LLP
Philadelphia, PA

I am seeking the position of Chair-Elect-Elect on the Board of the SLA Legal Division because I want to give back to the organization that has been an invaluable resource in my professional career. I was a recipient of the New Member Professional Grant, which enabled me to attend my first annual conference. This experience strengthened my connection to both SLA and the Legal Division. The networking, friendships and knowledge I have gained as a Legal Division member has made me a better information professional in my current position as the Information Resource Analyst at Duane Morris LLP Library in Philadelphia. To serve as Chair-Elect-Elect on the Board would enable me to be more hands-on in this organization to continue its success and to help build for the future. I have been a contributor to the Legal Division Quarterly, and I am motivated to continue writing for the newsletter and run for this position to strengthen my involvement. I am excited that the 2011 annual conference will be in my hometown of Philadelphia and I hope to serve on the Board during this time to assist the Legal Division in making the most of the conference in my home city. If elected, I look forward to meeting more members of the Legal Division and will promote keeping lines of communication open so that all members have a voice in our organization.

Prior to my current position at Duane Morris LLP, I have worked in the libraries of Cozen O'Connor, QVC and The Pennsylvania State University. I earned a Master of Library and Information Science degree from the University of Pittsburgh. I hold undergraduate degrees from Temple University (BA, History, Magna Cum Laude) and The Pennsylvania State University (AA, Letters, Arts and Sciences.) The SLA Legal Division has helped me feel a sense of community and camaraderie. It is this community that encouraged me to find a voice to promote librarianship in the form of my alter ego, Library Sherpa. When I'm not climbing a cyber mountain as a sherpa of librarianship, I serve on the Board of GPLLA (Greater Philadelphia Law Library Association) as a Director-at-Large. I am also an active board member of The Collaborative, a professional and social group supported by the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia. I reside in Maple Glen, Pennsylvania with my husband Josh and a card catalog that I won at auction from my local public library.
